The Jagannath Temple in Puri is being opened to the residents of the city from Monday, August 16. Visits can be made from Monday to Friday from 7 am to 7 pm, the temple is currently closed on Saturdays and Sundays two days a week. It is learned that the visit will continue as per the Covid rules & regulations, after which all the visitors will be allowed to enter the temple step by step.