

Love to take pictures? Visit from Chatakpur

Who does not love to take beautiful pictures of nature? Today I will tell you about a destination where you can take many pictures of different types of nature all day long. This time you can visit during the Puja holidays from Chatakpur, a small village located very close to Darjeeling. This hilly village is located a little above Sonada. Rows of pine trees on both sides of the road. Surroundings are shrouded in mist which creates an absolutely magical atmosphere. Your car will continue along that path. Located at an altitude of 7887 feet is this beautiful village of Chatakpur. The distance from Sonada is only 7 km. When you come here, you can hear the chirping of various kinds of Himalayan birds, and you can see wild animals like bears or leopards. Because this area is within the reserved forest area. If the weather is clear, the beautiful Mt. Kanchenjunga can be seen from this village. There are many homestays for overnight stays which can be booked by calling in advance. There is a facility of booking per head for a day with accommodation and meals
